STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMME: HISPANIC STUDIES PROGRAMME (HSP)

CURSO 2025-2026

Higher education institutions that would like to offer their students a language and cultural immersion programme will find in the Hispanic Studies Programme (HSP) the most complete educational offering.

- The HSP can be taken in semester (300 hours) or year (600 hours) format.

- The academic offering is composed of general and specific courses. Students will take five classes (30 ECTS) a term: one general (mandatory) and four topic-specific (chosen from those offered for each level).

    - The University of Jaén will issue an official Transcript of records with grades and credits for the courses taken.
    - There needs to be a minimum of 10 participants, and a specific agreement signed with the University of Jaén for this programme to be run.

- Institutions that would like to enrich their students' academic training may do so in two ways. They can complement the HSP with a cultural programme. This programme comprises one or more packages of complementary activities. The different options include socio-cultural activities, guided visits and outings, in the province of Jaén and beyond it, which will enrich the immersive learning experience of the participating students.

- At the end of the HSP, students will have the opportunity to register for the official SIELE Global exam to accredit their language proficiency.
